DEAR FRIENDS

'Lest we forget', a phrase so often used, but do we forget the sacrifice of those who laid down their lives for freedom of speech and for all of us to enjoy our peaceful way of life.

It is only a year ago we gave thanks on the 100th anniversary of the end of World War One. But all those memories of battles fought, won, and lost, of which we were reminded last year, have become like a vapour of a memory long forgotten

Yet we remember 2000 years ago how Jesus was betrayed at the last supper, lest we forget. We take the bread and wine, lest we forget that after the last supper Jesus went to the cross to fulfil God's rescue plan for mankind. That all mankind could have a living relationship with God because of the sacrifice of Jesus in laying down his life for our sins.

Remembrance Sunday is not only a time to remember those in the two World Wars and many wars since who died for their country. But the sacrifice of Jesus in dying for our sin, and offering us the gift of forgiveness and eternal life if only we just ask him for it.

Blessings

Alan Buckley, Lay Minister
